

Welcome to Otto Schiff

Otto Schiff is a residential home for people living with dementia and people with physical disabilities under the age of 65. It offers a modern and warm, Jewish environment, as part of the Maurice and Vivienne Wohl Campus.

The spacious en-suite bedrooms are situated over three floors in five units, each unit having open living communal areas, including a kitchen, dining room and lounge.

The home has its own private sensory garden filled with fragrant flowers and plants. Otto Schiff provides a friendly and stimulating social environment, with two dedicated social activities coordinators who organise a varied activities programme, with a personal approach.
