JEWISH CARE

Welcome to Kun Mor and George Kiss Home

Kun Mor and George Kiss Home offers residential care and dementia care in a modern, warm Jewish environment. This vibrant home is split over three floors and each floor has its own open plan living area; the perfect space for residents to chat and develop friendships with others. Residents have access to a furnished outside terrace with landscaped garden that they enjoy throughout the year.

The home provides a friendly and stimulating social environment, with a dedicated activities coordinator who organises a varied activity programme with a personal approach. As part of The Betty and Asher Loftus Centre, residents benefit from shared amenities such as a café and shop and often attend enriching events held at the Pavillion, as well as being able to attend the Sam Beckman Dementia Centre.
